

GIVING THANKS

For retirement communities

Make room for reflection. Invite a moment of gratitude.

A free, self-guided experience that invites residents to pause, reflect, and give thanks, alone or alongside others.

FREE RESOURCES

SELF-GUIDED

FLEXIBLE TIMING

A meaningful addition to community life

Offer residents a welcoming place for personal reflection and shared kindness. Each person moves at their own pace, with the freedom to pray, read, sit quietly, or share a thought.

What your community receives

01

Reflection guides

A six-part Journey of Gratitude, plus a step-by-step guide, with prayers, scripture, and thoughtful prompts.

02

Ready-to-print signs

Matching signs show residents where and when to visit, and welcome them into the reflection space.

03

Your community's identity

Free personalization with your community's name or logo. Mailed copies are available for personalized materials only.

Start with a space and a time

1 Choose a space

Select a comfortable room and available times with community management.

2 Set out the materials

Print the guide and signs, or request personalized materials through the website.

3 Welcome residents

Invite residents to drop in, follow the guide, and stay for as long as they wish.

Rooted in Christian prayer and scripture. Open to every belief.

Participation and sharing are always optional. Quiet reflection is welcome.

givingthankstogether.org

All materials will be available there to download for free.